BRUNSWICK

MEMBERSHIP INFORMATION

Scope of Practice

At the core of all effective child and youth care practice is a focus on the therapeutic relationship; the application of theory and research about human growth and development to promote the optimal physical, psycho social, spiritual, cognitive, and emotional development of young people towards a healthy and productive adulthood; and a focus on strengths and assets rather than pathology.

PRINCIPLES AND STANDARDS

Professional Child and Youth Care is committed to promoting the well being of children, youth, and families in a context of respect and collaboration. This commitment is carried out in a variety of settings and with a broad range of roles including direct practice, supervision, administration, teaching and training, research, consultation, and advocacy.

The principles represent values deeply rooted in our history, to which there is a common commitment.

- I. Responsibility for self.
- II. Responsibility to the client.
- III. Responsibility to the employer
- IV. Responsibility to the profession
- V. Responsibility to society.
