

Putting Pomp in its Place

Hopefully, in your practice in Child and Youth Care, you are able to balance the serious and the humorous, placing the right appropriate accent on each. The citizens of Glasgow, Scotland use traffic cones on their most prominent statue to remind themselves not to take life too seriously.

